

GALCORE

Dear suppliers,

Gallega de Cordones y Alambres, S.L., is certified in the field of quality management according to the according to the UNE-EN ISO 9001:2015 standard.

In order to apply this standard, it is required to communicate to all our suppliers a series of requirements for the suppliers of a series of requirements for the approval of the products and services received, the competence of the company and the competence of the company and the supplier's personnel, the interactions and the control and follow-up of the supplier's and monitoring of the supplier's performance in complying with all requirements, among other aspects.

Therefore, the company informs its suppliers that all requirements will be included in the order form or attached documents from this moment on. In the same way, Gallega de Cordones y Alambres personnel will proceed to review the product or service at the moment of its reception, moment in which some incidence may appear. If this is the case, the supplier will be notified.

Thus, Gallega de Cordones y Alambres will evaluate the development of its suppliers according to the non-conformities opened in each year, and may be discontinued in the event of repeated non-compliance with the requirements issued by the organization.

Yours sincerely,
Management